Entice Me: When Playing Games Blurs Boundaries (Paperback)

By Lauren Fremont

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . BONUS BOOKS BONUS OPPORTUNITY INSIDE WARNING: Mature Readers Only - This Book Contains Taboo Adult Content. Moving back with your parents is never the most desirable experience, especially if your mom has remarried. However, it is exactly the situation that Ruth finds herself in. Despite her university degree, she is unable to secure the job she wants; with funds low, she has taken a more basic job, and moved back home in order to reset and prepare herself for the future. However, a chance find will lead to a shocking discovery. Her bedroom is bugged! She finds a camera monitoring her every move. She is desperate to know why, as well as who is behind it. It doesn't take long to realize that her step dad is interested in more than just her general welfare. She doesn't know how long he has been watching her; but she is certain he has seen her naked. Her first response is to turn the tables, or even tell her mom; however, she quickly realizes that she can use this opportunity...
