

Fish Also Fade

By Yifat Lavi

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. Oren Somech (illustrator). 32 pages. Dimensions: 10.8in. x 8.3in. x 0.2in. A children's book, intended for children aged two years and above. The book tells the story of Little Tickly, a colorful Fin fish, clever and curious, who lives in a coral reef in the deep blue sea. One day, his mother notices the colors on Tickly's little body are fading. Little Tickly swims with his parents to the getting better Reef, where he meets new friends, receive treatment and spend time, until his colors are once again beautiful and clear. The book uses the metaphor of fading colors to describe a situation of a temporary incompatibility due to illness. There is no mentioning in the book of a specific illness, therefore it is appropriate to describe any situation (from influenza or moody feeling to severe illnesses). With the help of the book it is possible to explain to children their own health situation or of someone else in their surroundings (pre-school, classroom, family, etc) and generate with them a space for dialogue, while using the language of colors. At the end of the book there is a professional article (written by Ayelet Heller, an experienced educational...
