Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: .In Disciplinary Barracks.--When a sentence of dishonorable discharge has been suspended until the soldier s release from confinement, the execution or remission of any part of his sentence shall, if the soldier be confined in the United States Disciplinary Barracks, or any branch thereof, be directed by the Secretary of War. (See Ch. X, Army appropriation act of July 9, 1918; Public, No. 193, 65th Cong.) Art. 51. Judge Advocate General To Receive Records--Court Records Are Public.--The Judge Advocate General of the Army shall receive and file the record of the proceedings of all general courts, courts of inquiry, and military commissions, and shall immediately transmit to the Court of Military Appeals the record of all proceedings which carry sentences involving death, dismissal, or dishonorable discharge or confinement for a period of more than six months. The records of and reports upon the proceedings of all courts and military commissions, wherever filed, shall be public records and subject as such to public examination. COMMENT.--The star-chamber methods characteristic of existing court-martial practice are incompatible with justice and fundamental principles of our Government. Courtmartial records are declared to be public records, accessible as such to the public. The power of revision conferred by existing law upon the Judge Advocate General which the department insists is of no substantial import has been omitted, and a substantial power of review and revision conferred upon the Court of Military Appeals. Art. 52. Revision By Court Of Military ApPeals.--There is hereby created...
