Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The World Almanac and Encyclopedia, Vol. 2: January, 1895 To meet the wants of the ever widening circle of its friends additional information has been introduced in this year 8 issue of the almanac of the usual diversified character. The scope of this annual maybe said to extend, like its circulation, to the ends of the earth, for such, in effect, are Iceland and New Zealand, russian-asia and the Cape of Good hope, from which orders have been received, and to embrace all things in it. The almanac has a gron vogue in most foreign countries, and is now accepted in Europe as the only popular exposition of American statistics, and how it is regarded by the most progressive people of the East is evidenced by a call for three thousand copies of this issue from a bookseller in Japan. To respond liberally to this general demand for the book has been the aim in its compilation, and thus, while new topics have been introduced, all the standing departments, astronomical, educational, financial, religious, military, sporting, literary, political, local, etc. Have been extended and improved. Among the special features of the present edition, appearing for the first time, are the financial statements of over three hundred and sixty universities and colleges. To the elaborate exposition of railroad systems in the United States and Canada has been added summaries of their latest reports of receipts and expenditures. Much attention has been given to the labor problem. Anew tabular history of strikes in this country appears, as well as the text of the President s proclamations in July and the recommendations of the Government Strike Commission. In the sporting department will be...
