Independent Bookworm. Paperback. Condition: New. 198 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.5in. Fresh from the academy, ambitious Galaktipol officer Vera Staven has been transferred to the only human settlement on the ice planet Paralan. Aside from smuggling, crimes are rare and the suicide rate is high. But something at the latest find nags at Vera, although no clues indicate its anything but a suicide. When native Galaktipol officer Joloran Durim Brunhgan meets the mother of his wee-ones for the yearly egg-opening feast, he doesnt know hes facing the worst case of his career. The next morning, fifteen Paralan wee-ones went missing, girls only. A catastrophe for the natives. Joloran hurls himself into the investigation, but he cant get the murder of two wee-ones out of his mind that he couldnt solve many years ago. Paralan and humans harbor prejudices, making it hard for Joloran to follow all clues. Against his will, his superior requests support from the humans. POK Vera Staven is assigned to him, the only woman in the human Galaktipol station on Paralan. And time is running out. With every passing day, the probability of finding the wee-ones alive shrinks. But only as a team, Joloran and Vera might have a chance. Can they overcome their prejudices and cooperate, or will they find these children disemboweled in the icy wilderness of the planets far side too Science Fantasy for readers from 12 years up This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
