Siren Publishing, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When librarian Lesley Farmer meets builder Charlene McKinley, it s hot at first sight. Pheromones flood common sense despite the fact that each is so obviously not the other s type. He prefers women who are sophisticated, genteel, and ultra-feminine. She prefers men who are buff and don t wear bowties. But when hormones take over, the two ravished and bemused opposites are left to see what they can build together. Through a series of assumptions and misconceptions, it seems as if the unlikely pair will never get together. Maybe all they really shared was a one-night stand after all. Yet neither can stop thinking about the other. When fate puts them together one more time, they say to hell with dating and head straight to bed. But can home-and-hearth-seeking Lesley convince commitment-shy Charlie that building a life together is inevitable because they are made for each other? ===== 5 Hearts: What an addictive story! Ms. Morgan Ashbury has written a phenomenal story with a unique plot which, I predict, will be an award winner. Ms. Ashbury has an extensive ability to bring [the characters] likenesses to light without rambling. There is so much substance in this novel; I am delighted that she could share so much information in this superb manner. Seldom have I read a book I enjoyed more; that this is Ms. Ashbury s first book is amazing. I highly recommend this book to all who are interested in a beautiful love story which has a light comedic appeal! Brenda, The Romance Studio ~~~~~ 4 Cups: Made for Each Other is a powerhouse read. It was fun watching the mismatch duo tackle their feelings for the other. I...
