Again issuing our call on July 14th, when France commemorates her age-long struggles for liberty which eventually brought the whole civilized world to her support and its defense, we venture anew to remind our people that in honoring Lafayette upon his anniversary, made doubly memorable for all mankind by the Battle of the Marne, we shall be giving expression to the feeling of fraternal regard for our sister republic, our ally of old and of today, which exists among all elements of our people, and shall be celebrating with her the day which turned the tide of battle for freedom and the right, giving us time to organize our forces on land and sea and to provide the factor which proved decisive.
