Every bird nests when they want an egg even Susie Sparrow knows that. What she doesn't know, though, is what to do with her egg once it's laid. She knows it needs to be kept warm, but how warm, and for how long? Her clever solution to the problem in this short and sweet tale will leave you with a warm glow, and you will never look at bird nests the same way again! Poor Mick the Mouse just wants a comfortable place to sleep. The farmyard where he lives is full of little hidey holes, but none of them are quite right. The farmhouse would be better, he thinks, but he would get in trouble if he went in there, because the farmhouse is the domain of Ginger, the monstrous orange farm cat, and nobody needs that kind of action and adventure. But one night when Ginger is away, Mike decides to risk it. Flag and Minty are two little men who live in a black box above a Zebra crossing. Flag is a little red man and Minty is a little green man. Together, they have days filled with adventure, humour, and good times, and more often than not get into trouble because of Minty's impulsive actions. A new collection of short stories for children illustrated with bright pictures your children will treasure. Short and sweet, full of adventure, humour, and an engaging story to help your children learn to read. Lili Rhoss lives in Wales where she writes short stories to help young children learn to read. Her new series of stories for children, illustrated with funny pictures, are also available on Kindle for everyone to enjoy....
