

Real Living Nightmare (Paperback)

By R J Rogers

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A young woman named Rachel, soaring in her mid-twenties, is going through a rough patch in her life. Everything that scared her in this lifetime stops her in the moment to make her question everything that has happened in her life and where it's leading up to. Between depression, along with anxiety, her nightmares show her a horrific hint of reality in what she's going through or what is coming her way. Saddened by the breakup with her longtime friend and her baby sister who has moved onto another state to pursue bigger dreams, she feels all alone and shuts out everyone around her. As she stays in solitude with her own misery, she tortures herself with why things happened the way they did between her and her longtime friend Jay and why she couldn't be bold and brave like her baby sister, instead of letting fear consume her whole life. One stormy night, she has a very bad dream of an intruder in her house--something Rachel has dreamed in the past. Usually, this happens when something bad is...
