

Ben s Little Big Adventure (Paperback)

By Rachel Shirley

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Ben s Little Big Adventure describes a small boy s quest for a midnight snack. Only trouble is, everything in his room seems to have scaled up to the proportions of the earth s great wonders, including the furniture and even his cat. If only Ben s toy helicopters, cranes and hot air balloon had real engines, for they would make his quest a little easier. With so much to climb and navigate, will Ben ever find his way to his prized biscuits and jam? Ben s adventure begins as follows: Everyone knew about Ben s fad. In fact, Christmases and birthdays were filled with the same gifts: toy models that in real life could travel further and faster than Ben ever could. Ben thought they were magic for their engines could do the impossible: cars that could break the sound barrier, boats that could traverse the oceans and other great wonders like planes, steamboats, lorries rockets and trains. Not forgetting motorbikes, airships, gliders, fire engines, liners, cranes, tanks, trucks and shuttles. Oh, yes, and helicopters as well. How...
