Original publisher: College Park, Md. : Federal Records Centers of the National Archives and Records Administration, 2007 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)156848233 Subject: Public records -- United States -- Management. Excerpt: . . . requested file, and return it to the records center. If the OF 11 is no longer attached, provide a brief note or cover memo annotated REFILE and attach it to the file being returned. The memo must also include the same information that was contained on the original OF 11: transfer number; box number; records center location number; and charge code (if the agency is participating in Stratified Report Invoicing - - see definition page 6). Do not refolder or rebox records requested from the records center. Unless you have made some prior arrangement with the center, return the records in the original folders or boxes to allow accurate refil-ing. If the box or folder is unusable for shipment, copy the transfer number, location, box number and any other information on the outside of the contain-er onto the front of the replacement box or folder. FRCs will contact agency customers when expanded refiles are too large for their original location.
