

Different Springs (Hardback)

By Laurence Kevin Coleman

Alifaras Books, LLC, 2013. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A theft followed by murderous ambushes in Morocco; a former mullah awakened in the predawn darkness by the voice of his long dead wife in Iran; a successful trial lawyer dead of an apparent heart attack and a police captain found shot to death in New Orleans. Attorney Owen Macauley is about to find himself at the center of the vortex created by these events, a place where two families and their histories are about to be entwined, and where his own past will have to be confronted as it becomes linked to theirs. For a thousand years the Al Katib family has survived wars, strife and religious bigotry while carefully guarding its founding secret, a work of genius from eleventh century Spain that has allowed its Jewish, Christian and Muslim branches to live in harmony - but quietly, because its secret would have provided religious fanatics with grounds to execute all its members. In its over 200 years in New Orleans the Pareeja family has had to battle vicious racism and cultural animosity for its survival - struggles which took their...
