XLIBRIS. Paperback. Condition: New. 102 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. The Nevada Kid and his sidekick, Smokey Embers, decide to go on a hunting trip in the mountains. The plan was to surprise their good friend, Jim Cappieona, Cappie who lives in a mountain home. When they reach Cappies home, he is not there. Their hunting trip turns into a search-and-rescue mission in the mountains above Yuma, Arizona. They are confronted by Mexican outlaws, two beautiful señoritas, and an Indian boy named Keytoe who is protecting the sacred ground of the thunder god for the elders of his tribe. What dangers do they encounter near the abandoned gold mines in the mountains and the old mining town of Harshaw Pedro, the leader of the Mexican outlaws, has no sympathies for any man that he captures, especially if that man is messing with his girlfriend, Carmelita. Who is Rosita, the cute Mexican girl that bakes delicious hot apple pies After all this adventure, do Nevada and Smokey ever get any hunting done on this trip When they arrive back at the ranch with two turkeys in tow, another twist is thrown at them. Nevadas attorney, Mr. Parks, has set up...
