After the untimely death of her beloved father, the valiant Chevalier St. Angouleme, innocent young Adelaide goes to live with her uncle and aunt, the Count and Countess St. Angouleme. Although the haughty and imperious Count keeps her confined nearly a prisoner within the castle walls, Adelaide is nonetheless happy in the company of her friend the Countess. Still reeling from this revelation, Adelaide's situation grows even worse when she is kidnapped by banditti in the service of a lascivious marquis and imprisoned in a remote castle.
