This collection of short stories consists of thirteen stories that travel into the different kinds of darkness a person can experience, they are full of disturbing acts of murder and crimes. THE MONSTER HE BECAME: Bryon just snapped one day, he couldn't handle the dirty secret he took to his grave. He planned to take those who caused such trauma with him. He succeeded in killing his twin sisters in order to save them from their father, who happened to be his step-father. He killed his step-father for what he had done and set out to kill his mother for not protecting him. She saves her own life by ending his. The Arsonist: Jeffery Tyler is a firefighter who has the strangest obsession. He gets sexually aroused by fires. He became a fire fighter more for the reason to watch the fires instead of helping put them out. This tale takes you on the journey of his sexual obsession that leads to arson, rape and murder. Killer Addiction: Lydia is a junkie who suffers from mental abuse that started when she was a kid. She feels the drugs quiet those voices that she constantly hears in her head putting her down just like her family always did. The voices make her think killing for her next fix made her into somebody. Eventually she set out to quiet the voices once and for all. She succeeds but not without ending her own life. TOGETHER FOREVER: Susie is an alcoholic who is about to lose her family because of her need to drink all day everyday. When she finds out that her husband is leaving her and taking the kids she...
