

Aria in Ice (Paperback)

By Flo Fitzpatrick

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Scouting for a must be chilly/must be spooky medieval castle in Prague to use as the background for a musical film based on a Gothic novel is, to quote Gershwin, nice work if you can get it. Dancer Abby Fouchet, acting as location scout for film company Headlights Productions has got it. She s also got her soap star fiance playing wannabe burglar, a psychic with more costumes than a Broadway touring company, assorted film divas and grave-robbers popping up around Kouzlo Noc, Abby s choice for the atmospherically creepy castle. Then there s the ghost. Ignatz Jezek, flautist and craftsman (who died in 1792) is providing musical accompaniment primarily from Mozart s The Magic Flute, an opera dear to Jezek s departed heart. Abby is the only one being entertained by flute music because along with her gifts of second-sight Abby has the unique and often maddening ability to hear spirits.
