When I needed you to protect me against evil predators and vultures? Why did you not listen or identify that my behaviour was strange and uncharacteristic? I changed and you did not even seem to notice. You are not alone; hopefully I shall be able to help parents to listen to their children and in doing so discover extraordinary behavior within their children. Children around the globe experience identical behavior when molested or abused and there is hope if this is identified and the victims treated at an early age. Uncharacteristic behavior is an early indication that your child is suffering from some sort of anxiety or distress. To little time is invested in our children and we need to make more time in understanding and identifying strange behavior within our children. All the profits of my book are invested in the treatment of adults who has never received therapy when they were abused or sexually molested either by males or female pedophiles when they were kids. In most cases the damage done is much more intense and if not treated may have permanent negative consequences on our children. Most of the victims end up with some sort of addiction, drugs, alcohol, sex addiction and without treatment the recovery process is almost impossible. Invest in your children, read my story and spend quality time with your children. Don't let your children ask you, where were you when I needed you?.
