He set the right tone in the run-in, when the heat was on, and he showed great consistency, reassuring the players after the difficult start to keep playing in the same way. In press dealings he's a gent - and not afraid to say what he thinks. Jonathan Northcroft on Manuel Pellegrini. Re-live another amazing season for Manchester City as their new Chilean manager Manuel Pellegrini and his holistic approach to football saw City secure a domestic double, capturing another last-day title victory whilst breaking goalscoring records along the way. With thoughts on every match and a look at the issues that forever surrounded the club, the book charts the journey from the start of the post-Mancini era, the highs and lows of the cup competitions, the difficult start to the season and the nerve-wracking title run-in that culminated in the clouds breaking as the trophies were paraded around a very blue Manchester city centre. Includes: Three Bumper Bundles of City Slurs Football In The Bible City's Squad Value The A-Z of City Legends The A-Z of City Villains An Open Letter To Txiki Begiristain Ferran Soriano Two Open Letters to Ed Woodward Harry Potter The Theatre of Dreams What Has Happened To City's Departed Stars?
