Reviews

Very helpful to any or all category of folks. It is written in simple phrases rather than difficult to understand. It has been developed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly just after I finished reading this pdf in which basically transformed me, modify the way in my opinion.

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Chicago Literary Papyri Among the Chicago papyri which have been published in the course of the past ten years are some literary pieces of value which seem to merit republication in collected form. This is especially desirable because they were first published scattered through journals, American and English, so that they are not now easily available for the textual and literary studies to which they are related. It seems advisable therefore to collect and revise these first publications of them, and present them as a group, unmixed with non-literary material. Nos. II, III, IV, VI, VII, of the present collection have already been published, with somewhat full discussions: No. II in the Journal of Hellenic Studies, XXIII (1903); Nos. III, IV, and VI in the American Journal of Philology, XIX (1898), XXIV (1903), and XXI (1900); and No. VII in the American Journal of Archaeology, Second Series, II (1898). No.V was described in Classical Philology, I (1906). To the editors of these journals the writers thanks are due for their courteous permission to republish. To the scholars who have aided in the work upon these texts the writers obligations are recognized in the several discussions, but his especial thanks here as often before are due Drs. Grenfell and Hunt. Not all of the following texts, however, are republications. No. I, a fragment of the oration of Isocrates To Nicocles, has not previously been published or described. With the exception of the third, the Ayer Papyrus, which belongs to the Field Museum, the papyri are in the collection of the editor. The Ayer Papyrus was purchased in Cairo by Mr. Ed. E. Ayer, of Chicago, about...
