Excerpt: .or clauses (or clause-equivalents) dependent on a verb of saying, thinking, etc., called the leading verb (Indirect Speech, Oratio Obliqua): e.g. dywedodd nad oedd neb yno, he said that there was no one there. This is the second of the Bills which have been brought forward for the purpose of widening a part of the Chester and Holyhead Railway in order to meet the increasing traffic. In itself the undertaking is one of the most welcome; and if it should be carried out with due regard to the interests of the business men of North Wales and those of the local authorities of those districts where the extension of the line interferes with public claims, no one could raise any objection to it. There are several provisions lacking in the Bill in its original form, in order to secure the claims of the roads...
