Rosita, The Journey Home tells the story of how a tiny Chihuahua, born in Mexico, was rescued by a missionary and how she came to live in the Smoky Mountains of North Carolina. She longed for two things: a name that belonged only to her and a family to love and care for her. Along the way she faced permanent separation from her native home and family, loneliness, fear, and an encounter with danger in the desert. She was also introduced to an invisible, wonderful friend named God.
