He was rich enough to play Santa at the orphanage that his beloved wife Dorothy grew up in. He and Dorothy played Santa and Mrs. Santa to all of the children there. When Dorothy died of cancer the man's heart died with his love; still he took care of the children at the orphanage because to him they were family. But Dorothy did not stay gone and returned as a ghost to find another wife for her beloved husband. When Raymond during one of his vacations found a waitress that was the spitting image of his dead Dorothy he fell in love all over again. The spirit of his wife also discovered that she had living sisters and was part of a set of triplets! Now, things got interesting!.
