

God s Wrong is Most of All: Divine Capacity (Hardback)

By Kenneth Cragg

Sussex Academic Press, United Kingdom, 2006. Hardback. Book Condition: New. New edition. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. We do not do God , politicians may say, explaining that theirs is the art of the possible. Some theologians have been reluctant with that plea, whilst practicing the art of the assured. But what might God doing God entail? God is a relational word involved in human mutuality. With God, doing is one with being . There is always a God and . situation obtaining: God and the astronomers , and God and the tsunami . Then quickly a God but . situation emerges and the wrong with it. Shakespearean repartee (God s wrong is most of all: if thou didst fear to break an oath with him , Richard III , Act IV, Scene 4), and from Macbeth and King Lear , may help us focus further the inherent discrepancies of approach. Moreover, by long oath-taking tradition we invoke God in verifying verity, putting perjury on the line. What then of this universal guarantor of truth who is, by the same token, for ever blameworthy? Hence the theme of divine capacity (a wiser term here...
