But this custom is almost entirely abolished in the country of the Delawares and Iroquois. Of particular value to the study of the archeology of the Delaware valley will be the report on the skeletal remains now in preparation by Dr Ales Hrdlicka of the United States National Museum, to which institution the human bones were presented by the Museum of the American Indian. In his study of the crania from the Minisink cemetery Dr Hrdlicka has noted an unexpected form, resembling the Shawnee crania far more closely than those of other Algonquian tribes, including even the Delawares.
