BANQUETS. A banquet is a repast or a rich entertainment given in honor of some memorable event or celebration, usually attended with formality, all participants attending in proper dress for the occasion. During the meal the guests are entertained with music, afterwards suitable toasts, speeches, etc., which complete the feast. The menu consists of a full hot meal, like a table d hote dinner, served in courses, usually accompanied with wines. In some instances the price of the repast for each plate includes the wine, music and flowers; in others the wine and flowers without the music, but in the majority of cases the caterer serves...
