

The Red Vine

By Uli Ortmayer

Ousskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 114 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. How hard can it be to solve a simple murder? True, a decades-old murder is certainly a very cold case. After all these years, why not leave it a cold case; everyone connected to this murder is probably dead anyway. Or are they? A murder took place in that huge old house decades ago, but who would ever want to hurt Beatrice, especially on her wedding day? All she ever wanted to do was marry the love of her life, have children, and live happily ever after. What could she possibly have had that someone else would want? Who would want to hurt her? Why was Bill so inextricably linked to this old, vacant house? It was on the wind. Bill heard the house calling to him, reaching out to him. How could Bill possibly be linked to the old house; he grew up and lived his entire life in another town. He only moved to town when he got the job as tour guide for all the old Victorian mansions. It was a great job for architecture student. At times the house seemed to be in...
