SIR--You are hereby required and directed, after having received on board an officer belonging to the first battalion of royal colonial marines, to proceed in his majestys sloop under your command, without a moments loss of time, for Barritaria. On your arrival at that place, you will communicate with its chief, and urge him to throw himself upon the protection of Great Britain; and should you find the Barritarians inclined to pursue such a step, you will hold out to them that their property shall be secured to them, and that they shall be considered British subjects; and at the conclusion of the war, lands within his majestys colonies in America--(yet to be won, worthy admiral, said the governor, in parenthesis)-- will be allotted to them. Should you succeed completely in the object for which you are sent, you will concert measures for the annoyance of the enemy as you judge best, having an eye to the junction of their small armed vessels with me, for a descent upon the coast. So much for the son of lord Beverly! said the governor, in a tone of irony. These papers are growing in importance. --What is this Proclamation, by lieutenant-colonel Edward Nicholls, commanding his Britannic majestys forces in the Floridas. This sounds well. NATIVES or LOUISIANA! On you the first call is made to assist in liberating from a faithless imbecile government--(Humphl)-- your paternal soil!--Spaniards, Frenchmen, Italians, and British, whether settled, or residing...
