Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Patriotism in Three Cantos; And Other Poems At a period, probably without precedent in the annals of any provincial district, when the press has for some years past, and is still, issuing upon the great ocean of literature a variety of works by persons of acknowledged genius and talent in that sacred emanation of the soul - that pure Castaly of thought which floweth from the inmost fountain of the human heart - Poetry, as well as from the more general votaries to prosaic composition - the Author of the following pages ventures, not obtrusively or arrogantly, he hopes, but with respectful deference, and proper humility, to stand forth. The Author would avoid trifling with the reader s patience, and consequently is not disposed to enter at length into the details of early life; nevertheless, he trusts that a brief and unvarnished sketch of his autobiography may not be deemed assumptive or uninteresting. Born in the vicinity of Ancoats, Manchester, of humble, industrious, and respected parents, whose means, at the time of his youth, were scanty, and being one of thirteen, he was, from stern necessity, placed to business at a very early age; yet, whatever may have been his position, he does not desire to excite, by coloured or specious plausibility, any partial consideration, with the view of blunting the barb of criticism for the want of common scholastic knowledge, and the lack of the higher ornamental touches of classical diction; he would prefer, therefore, to submit, with becoming independence, to the candid and impartial critic. Amid his daily labour, the Genii Poetry and Painting, as with emulative spirit, alternately had influence, and in...
