Part 2 of the epic post-apocalyptic adventure Fallen begins with a choice: Love or Power. This is where you make your first choice in this series based on your personal preference. By choosing Power, this path will run parallel to Love. In this story, Dursky chooses to stay and learn about his abilities while trying to figure out more of what is going on around him. While making a choice does not give him complete control, he will experience something completely different than if he chooses Love. This is his chance to make things right through trying to learn and perfect all of his skills. He starts to learn more about himself and what Dr. McNeal is after. Jensen begins having dreams similar to Dursky's, together they begin to piece together what it means, while Dr. Hunter and Lila run in to struggles of their own. He goes through several tests in the military base that helps him develop his powers. With expertise at his side it does not take long at all to learn his abilities. Through unraveling the truth behind what is going on, a new foe arises with unexpected technology at their disposal. Though Dursky is honing his abilities, it may not be enough to defeat his enemy with sheer power!.
