The Holy Misadventures of Augustine (Paperback)

By Linda Oc Noskewicz

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Everyone knows God loves stubborn punky kids, especially those who don't believe in Him. So with His help, it should be a snap for a bunch of determined nuns to convince three wild orphans that God exists. In Monsters, Whales, God's Art, Other Stuff that Makes You Barfy, you meet Augustine, the cynical leader of an orphan posse who doesn't think he's very lovable. After all, his own parents didn't want him. Why would anyone else? And he isn't buying any of that God loves you stuff either, so don't bring it up. Despite his attitude, he finds himself constantly arguing with a smart-alecky, raucous, conniving nun, Sister Mary Magdalene. She's determined to prove to Augustine that God does exist and loves him more than he knows! Her plan of attack is simple. She nags and cajoles the boy relentlessly, hints at mysteries about Jesus, and keeps putting the bible right under his nose so that he'll read it. Augustine just wants her to stop bugging him already, so he reluctantly agrees to...
