

The Cadaver King and the Country Dentist: A True Story of Injustice in the American South (Hardback)

By Radley Balko, Tucker Carrington

INGRAM PUBLISHER SERVICES US, United States, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This is a tale of two tragedies. At the heart of the first is Dr. Steven Hayne, a doctor the State of Mississippi employed as its de facto medical examiner for two decades. Beginning in the late 1980s, he performed anywhere from 1,200 to 1,800 autopsies per year, five times more than is recommended, all at night, in the basement of a local morgue and flower shop. Autopsy reports claimed organs had been observed and weighed when, in reality, they had been surgically removed from the body years before. But Hayne was the only game in town. He also often brought in local dentist and self-styled bite mark specialist Dr. Michael West, who would discover marks on victim s bodies, at times invisible to the naked eye, and then match those marks to law enforcement s lead suspect. This leads to the second tragic tale: that of Kennedy Brewer and Levon Brooks, two black men each convicted in separate cases of the brutal rape and murder of young girls. Dr. Hayne s autopsy and Dr. West s bite mark matching formed the bases for...
