Excerpt from The American Jewish Times Outlook, Vol. 58: October, 1992; Tishri-Heshvan 5753 I am one who watches the barometers of hope. Some times we seem so very close to mending the rifts in trust and the occasional breaches in the warm and understanding relationship that once characterized the alliance of the black and Jewish communities in the civil rights struggle of an earlier day. At other times, words of conciliation are uttered, but not where and how they are most needed. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
