Not illustrated. 1907 Excerpt: . . . --The normal institute for Leyte will be held at Palo from November 4th to December 21st, 1907, under the direction of Mr. George B. Mitchell. --The high school domestic science classes under Miss Hoffman have been devoting their attention thus far to sewing. A large kitchen has just been completed, however, and courses in cooking are now under way. --The first year high school class regrets the loss of two of its members but rejoices in the fact that both Miss Cristeta Montejó and Florence Spina have been awarded scholarships in the Nurses Preparatory Training Class. The best wishes of the whole school go with the Misses Montejó and Spina in their new field of endeavor. PANQASINAN NOTES--The twelve municipal industrial teachers sent to the towns from the Industrial Normal Class of 1906-07 have begun the regular course, Shopwork IV, in twelve of the towns of this province. This course is the one outlined by the Woodworking Committee of the Industrial Convention last April. In addition to shopwork the teachers have been prepared to give instruction in industrial drawing, physical exercise, and military drill. --A new Industrial Normal Class of twenty members has been enrolled for the present year. In addition to the above subjects, the present class will be prepared to teach elementary science, a development of the object method for the fourth grade. --Military drill and physical exercise are strong features of the work this year. There is now organized a battalion of five...
