Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Recollections of the Pioneers of Lee County When a stranger taps at our door we naturally expect to be told his name and errand, and if he wishes to become an inmate of our home, something of his history. To those, therefore, who care to become better acquainted with this little book, we will tell something of its birth and parentage. The Lee County Columbian Club, in common with others throughout the entire state, was organized by an officer of the Illinois Woman s Expo sitiou Board - tor the purpose of opening communication with all parts of the county, of securing, for the various departments of the great expo sitiou any and every item in our county which would add to its interest or give evidence of the history, growth, resources, culture, or natural feat ures of the county. Also to facilitate communication with the State Board; to encourage the study of the Exposition; awakening interest and enabling us to enjoy it more intelligently. At one of our earliest meetings Miss Elizabeth J. Shaw spoke with much earnestness of the great historic events which are connected with Lee County, making ita point of interest not only to the state, but to the nation. This led to her being requested to prepare a sketch of those events, for the instruction and entertainment of the Club.
