B-283952 included optimizing intelligence collection, analysis, dissemination, storage, and retrieval by training field staff on intelligence collection methods and procedures and developing automated systems for collating, analyzing, and disseminating the collected information. Within the international component, INS anti-smuggling strategy calls for interdicting smuggled aliens as far away from the U. S. border as possible and to repatriate them when appropriate. The strategy calls for programs designed to disrupt alien smuggling in source and transit countries. INS responsibilities include ( 1 ) training foreign officials on migration controls, ( 2 ) assisting foreign governments in disrupting and dismantling alien smuggling organizations, and ( 3 ) aiding the development of laws making alien smuggling a crime. Although INS has had success in conducting some major smuggling cases Operational and using new investigative tools, its ability to conduct thousands of other anti-Management Problems smuggling cases has been hampered by operational and management problems. INS does not have mechanisms in place to help ensure that anti-Limit Implementation smuggling units coordinate their cases, such as having an agencywide of the Domestic automated case tracking and management system that all investigators can Strategy readily access to determine whether an investigation on a given target is already open or has been previously opened. In addition, INS does not have criteria for determining which investigations it should open to ensure best use of its anti-smuggling resources. Further, outcome-based performance measures of progress toward the strategys goals have not been developed. Finally, INS Intelligence Program is...
