Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In My Son has Autism, Author G.M. Cameron shares her journey to acceptance after her eldest son was diagnosed with autism in 2014. Share in her journey in this emotional and revealing book about parenting with autism. Author G.M. Cameron did not plan for autism and when it entered her life, she went through a cornucopia of emotions. Denial, guilt, shame and depression consumed this mother of three. She blamed herself and God, she blamed God and fell into depression. The path to acceptance was not easy, but a journey she had to take. My Son has Autism is meant to bring insight to readers about the world of parenting with autism and for other mothers to know that they are not alone. The author not only shares her story but also the coping steps to take to show up as the best for your autistic child.
