The Face Of Evil The Autobiography based on the life of Columbus C. Cooper III. A former 3 strikes ex-convicted felon, who s past life include s a 30 year criminal life history entangled within the criminal justice system, a former welfare recipient, ex-gang member, sex and drug substance abuser and addict of over 25 years. Columbus would Later become a christian and senior pastor of over 15 years, a self employed small business operator, within the same west texas community where law enforcement officials previously denied and protested his return due to his years of terrorizing the small city of Odessa Texas. The bible say s: With God all things are possible God would reveal unto me, how there would be many men, women and youth of whom he would send to cross my path, who would be trapped within the very same horrible nightmarish, hopeless and miserable lifestyle, circumstances and situations in which I myself had once been trapped within for almost 30 year s of my own life. These people and I would be...
