This is the true story of my life of walking in the earthly journey, then being transported to a new journey where things changed drastically for me in a few minutes time. One minute I was an unbeliever, disliking God, none believer who didn't want to talk about it, and in the next minute, being transported to a new realm. Walk this one out with me, and you will never be the same, I know I am not the same person as I was before I met Him face to face. You will never be the same after reading this book. If you fail to accept Him, you will never know the exciting LIFE He can place you into, giving you more than you bargained for. There is a supra-natural realm that is available to all whosoever will come, believe, receive and obey. It is new every morning. Take the time, right now, to read thru this book and listen to the small still voice of the Spirit as you read. Then take a step into the unnatural NATURAL life of the Spirit of the Lord. Life is different in God's world of love, joy, and peace that passes all understanding.
