

Rock Stars Are Dumb and You Know It Volume 2 (Paperback)

By Javier S Medina

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The never ending satirical criticism of the mindless thought process of rock stars in each and every one of its sub-genres. It is also a witty picture of the contradictory logic and philosophical doctrine of rock icons with the use of sarcastic humor to illustrate their irrationality. In addition, this book pounds in the subliminal question to its readers; why do we love this walking disasters so much to the point that their idiocy becomes the wisdom of the ages and the only one must follow? And another one question that must be considered above anything else; if it is known that they are screw-ups their fans continue to support them at any cost? Through its dialogs, the book provides examples of the manipulation and deceit of celebrity culture which in turn contributes to mass self-illusion that clearly elicits behavior of self-destructive tendencies. More importantly, how this cult tends to often dismiss reality and portrays it as an impediment to success or negativity.
