

The Sea Is Quiet Tonight: A Memoir (Paperback)

By Michael H Ward

Querelle Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Michael Ward s book presents a realistic and insightful portrayal of the early AIDS epidemic in Boston. I was especially moved by the vivid descriptions of love and loss expressed at Mark s memorial service. -Jerome Groopman, MD, staff writer in medicine and biology for The New Yorker Over three decades ago, just when we were all learning about AIDS, Michael Ward and his lover experienced firsthand the uncertainty, fear, and heartbreak of the disease. It is essential that we not forget these early days of the AIDS crisis. Thank goodness Michael is here to remind us of the human cost of those days in this moving, deeply personal, and beautifully written book. -Ken Harvey, author of A Passionate Engagement and If You Were With Me Everything Would Be All Right The Sea Is Quiet Tonight is about so much more than life and death. It s a story about how relationships survive when death is close. It s a story about community. I felt as if I knew all of the characters personally. A real stand-out is the characterization of Aunt Pearl,...
