Tir d with all these, for restful death I cry;--As, to behold desert a beggar born, And needy nothing trimm d in jollity, And purest faith unhappily forsworn, And gilded honour shamefully misplac d, And maiden virtue rudely strumpeted, And right perfection wrongfully disgrac d, And strength by limping sway disable-ed, And art made tongue-tied by authority, And folly, doctor-like, controlling skill, And simple truth miscall d simplicity, And captive good attending captain ill: Tir d with all these, from these would I be gone, Save that, to die, I leave my love alone. No longer mourn for me when I am dead, Than you shall hear the surly sullen bell Give warning to the world that I am fled From this vile world, with vilest worms to dwell: Nay, if you read this line, remember not The...
