Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 66 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Excerpt from Our Nation In these pages will be found the principles in which the hearts of our people must be united, by which America must still stand forth in glory and in power. The question of Slavery which now divides so many hearts, must be settled in that way that America may neither be divided, dishonored or fall. God has made the African inferior to the European race, from which Americans have all descended, and no cultivation can make them equal, for he has formed them to differ by nature; their natures are perfectly adapted to the station for which He created them. The natures of each race must be learned, to establish peace, order, freedom and harmony on the earth. God has given to no heathen race the power to go forward and make any Nation what He has designed that each Nation of the earth shall become, great, honored, powerful, and happy, possessing all things that can contribute to the happiness, elevation, convenience, and comfort of man. The race the most ennobled by nature, the most delicately formed, the most active and Godlike, (for all that is God-like is action, - Gods works prove this) are to take the lead in this great work of advancement, and to such, the heathen is to be in subjection. The perfect laws of nature will establish order, peace and harmony everywhere. It is nature for that which is inferior to seek protection, and when men everywhere shall be true to that which needs their care and protection, then there will be no more bondage on earth.
