Ambush Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Chuck Roach (illustrator). 231 x 157 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Description From her ranch on Ambush Hill in West Texas, Sonja Klein has produced second book even better than Honk If You Married Sonja! Hop in her back pocket and travel vicariously with this cheeky Texas gal as she explores Brazil, China, East Africa, India, Vietnam and many other destinations, one adventure-and misadventure-at a time. You ll be intrigued with her no-holds-barred essays, worldwide travel adventures and Texas ranch life. From the author I believe that we are nomads and that traveling helps us find ourselves. Most human contacts have been made through travel by wandering pilgrims who approached the meaning of life through walking. We might be able to think and live better and be closer to our purpose in life if we moved continually across this earth. I hope that this book will stir the hunger within you to experience the romance of life. My wish for you is to leave the prison of necessity that diverts from the true life of the spirit. Walk through that door, where an untraveled world beckons, for we are all born adventurers. You might as well admit it. Travel writing is about storytelling and I can only hope that I have told my story well. Most of all, I invite you to join me. What people are saying When I was a boy, Sonja Klein was one of the first grown-ups in my life to show me it was okay to have fun. Sonja is my mom s younger first cousin. My first memories of her are of liking her and wanting to be around her. She always seemed happy and excited about whatever she...
