

The Last Maharajan (Paperback)

By Susan Wingate

False Bay Books, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Labeling Susan Wingate as Chick Lit is akin to accusing Steven King of freelancing for Harlequin! .a gritty little book, with outstanding characters and a plot that is so strange, I could actually see it happening in real life. written with panache. a great read and Wingate has done a fabulous job of both plot and character development. a book that has wide appeal. score 5 stars. I loved the plot, loved the characters, and .can find no fault. and the story flows. -Simon Barrett The narrator s voice is very genuine and compelling. Strong women are always appealing, and these are two very strong women. Wingate develops [the story] with a lovely, light touch. Wingate handles the narrative with such ease. [The reader is] drawn to her honesty. Brava, Susan. - Phyllis Schieber is the author of Willing Spirits and The Sinner s Guide to Confession Susan Wingate shows an understanding of human nature well beyond what is normally seen in a novel. She has a mastery of dialogue that I find refreshing-I felt as though I was right there, listening....
