By Peggy J Harrison

Benchland Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. Mindy Alper (illustrator). 178 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.4in. The Girl with the Gold Coin The sequel to Norm and Burny: The Black Square Meet Dara. Is she the same girl as Adara What is she doing in modern times Where did she get that gold coin Meet Jo, Daras Gypsy mother, a magician who can do scary things. She knows all about Norms black-square app. What happens to Norm and Dara and Burny makes Norms black-square adventures look tame. They meet Morgana, straight out of the stories of King Arthur. If it weren't for Burny, they might not survive the encounter. Jos magic amulets protect them from Morgana's wrath -- until Morgana tries to take Norm's amulet by trickery. He is saved at the last minute by Adara (or is it Dara) Norm and Dara and Burny are young and clever, but Morgana is a dangerous enemy. Their classic battle of good against evil comes to an astonishing climax. The Girl with the Gold Coin For readers eight and older -- the second book of five! With 25 illustrations by Mindy Alper.
