Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Far more women are traveling the world for business and pleasure and doing so on their own. Any woman that travels extensively knows that the world can many times be a cultural minefield! Would you like to know which cultures are not big on small talk? Or which ethnic groups put more importance on non-verbal cues? Do you want to know the dining, gift-giving and dress etiquette for India, the Middle East, China, South America? From knowing how to conduct yourself in a Japanese Tea Ceremony, to maintaining your Bella Figura in Italy, and surviving a Russian toasting marathon, discover the confidence that comes from being culture savvy, wherever you are in the world! Here are what others have had to say about Culture Savvy : At last we can cross continents, confident in the knowledge of how not to offend local sensibilities! Having travelled extensively, I have always wanted to step lightly on foreign soil. It seems utterly logical to me to be respectful of local cultures, however to actually understand the nuances, idiosyncrasies and customs of people is...
