Xlibris Corporation, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .He had had thoughts of getting close to Sadie from the very first day he d seen her. And now, with it possibly happening, how could he say or do anything that might possibly ruin his chances? As he sat up Sadie took a sponge and started to scrub his back, neck, and shoulders. She worked around to the front and washed under his arms and on the front of his chest. As she did so she said, You know, Tad, I am not so much older than you. I have just led a harder life and grew up a little faster than you have. I was forced to take care of myself at a rather early age. I had to leave home because my step-father was taking advantage of me, and I couldn t stay and let that happen. My mother was a drunk and wouldn t admit to herself that her husband was a bastard. It s hard for a girl to make it on her own. I fell into the only thing I could do to make a living. It s okay Sadie, I know deep down you are a good person. I only wish you didn t have to do what you do with other men. Yeah well, don t you judge me for what I do. You don t understand what I ve been through that s all. I m sorry, Sadie I didn t mean to sound like I was judging you. I guess I m just a little jealous of the other men, that s all. Jealous, what do you have to be jealous about? We aren t tied to one another. I m just...
