

Ending Violent Crime Cheaply and Permanently (Paperback)

By Medicine Story

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The author of this book has spent four decades in community formation and healing work. He is an elder, storyteller, and keeper of the lore for the Assonet Band of the Wampanoag nation. He is a veteran of the Korean War. He has run prison rehab programs in three states, as well. The usual recidivism rate for persons released from incarceration is around 80 , after five years. The recidivism rate out of his rehab programs, run by volunteers, was about 15 . He has said he could get that down to zero, with enough support. I believe it. I have met graduates of his programs, and I d have no problem with them being in my neighborhood. There are really two choices in life- love, or fear, expressed as kindness, or violence. Each is a gift that keeps on giving. People experience them, and pass them on. The basic method is the Native American Medicine, or healing, circle, in which participants offer respectful attention and support to each other. The author gives presentations in several European countries, each year,...
