Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Rule of St. Augustin, and the Constitutions: For the Religious of the Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd of Angers But although this Rule is evidently holy, and, having been approved by the Church, ought to be considered above censure; and that the very name of its author ought to suffice to make it an object of veneration to all who bear the title of Christians; nevertheless, the foolish temerity of the children of this world, partly from affectation, partly through the spirit of criticism, has not failed to find in it subjects for frivolous objections. In order then that no one may disturb you on this subject, I will provide against their questions and foolish remarks, and at the same time throw a light upon some difficulties which might be an obstacle to you in the reading or practice of this Rule. The command of the glorious Father before all things, to love God and the neighbour, is not inserted in his Rule to make us think that he is the author of these commandments; for who does not know, not only that they are from God, but, moreover, that they are the very essence and abridgment of the whole Law. What God has commanded His servant has recommended as the only end and sole aim for which he has established his Rule and Congregation, and to this object all is to be referred. The words, these are the things that we recommend to you, that you may observe them, should not give the Sisters any scruple, as if this Rule, in all its Articles, bound under pain of...
