Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.No other woman your life can be to you as your wife can. She can bear your children, manage your home, meet your need for sexual expression, and travel with you around the world. And if she is anything like my bride, she makes your house, your home no matter where in the world or the size or age of the house; she makes it home because her love is there. All that said, our wives deserve the place of the first lady in our lives. She is first over mother, sister, aunt, daughter, former wife, girlfriend or female boss. That means you and I have to learn how to manage the women in our lives. Our wives need to feel like they are the relationship priority in our lives. Keeping it personal, your wife and your relationship with her is the most important relationship you will have with another living human. Your relationship with your wife is second only to your relationship Jesus. By giving her this place in your life you are nourishing and cherishing her. Take a moment here to think about something you cherish, something you value highly. Maybe when you were a kid, it was a Nolan Ryan baseball glove or a baseball signed by Willie Mays. Maybe you cherished your very first bicycle or certainly your first car. You probably bragged that you had it. Showed it to everybody, but did let anybody touch it, ride it or drive it. You probably made sure you kept it oiled, clean and shiny. You cherished it. That applies to how you cherish your wife. You speak well of her (brag on her) and honor her when she is...
